

lisakucher3

Jan 26, 2021 1 min read

Glossary – Word of the Day: "License"

In export control, a "license" means any act by which the competent governmental authority is authorizing an export, reexport or other regulated activity. Under Luxembourg law, a license is called "authorization", defined by meaning a license, prior or final authorization, certificate or permit or any other act of authority having a similar scope, in relation to any activity covered by the law of 27 June 2018.

